Arbitration is a process for resolving disputes outside of the court system. An independent third-party arbitrator will take evidence from both parties and then rule on the issue(s). If a dispute arises, you or we can file a claim with either organization. If you file a claim against us, we will pay the initial filing fee. Each party must pay its own attorneys' fees and other costs of the arbitration. However, the arbitrator can award reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to the party who wins the arbitration.

If we file a claim against you and select an organization that is unacceptable to you, you have the right to choose the other organization if you notify us of your decision within 30 days after you receive notice of our arbitration choice.

You and we agree that any arbitration will be conducted in the county where you live.

Nothing in this arbitration agreement is intended to prevent either of us from filing a lawsuit in an appropriate small claims court for an amount that does not exceed the court's jurisdictional limits. All other disputes must be arbitrated.

This arbitration agreement will survive termination of the Agreement and will continue to be in effect to resolve any disputes that arise between you and us.
