16. Jury Trial Waiver and Arbitration Clause By signing below (including if electronically), you agree to this Jury Trial Waiver and Arbitration Clause ("Clause").

Background and Scope
What is arbitration?	An alternative to court.	In arbitration, a third-party arbitrator ("TPA") solves Disputes in a hearing ("hearing"). You, related third parties, and we, waive the right to go to court, other than small-claims court. Such "parties" forgo jury trials.
Is it different from court and jury trials?	Yes.	The hearing is private and less formal than court. TPAs may limit pre-hearing fact finding, called "discovery." The decision is final. Courts rarely overturn TPAs.
Who does the Clause cover?	You, Us, and Others.	This Clause governs the parties, their heirs, successors, assigns, and third parties related to any Dispute.
Which Disputes are covered?	All Disputes.	In this Clause, the word "Disputes" has the broadest possible meaning. This Clause governs all "Disputes" involving the parties. This includes all claims even indirectly related to your application and agreements with us. This includes claims related to information you previously gave us. It includes all past agreements. It includes renegotiations, extensions, renewals, or payment plans, if any. It includes claims related to nonpayment, reclaiming rented items, privacy, customer information, and other claims related to our relationship with you. It includes claims related to setting aside this Clause. It includes claims about the Clause's arbitrability, including its validity and scope. It includes claims about whether to arbitrate.
Are you waiving rights?	Yes.	You waive your rights to: 1. Have juries solve Disputes. 2. Have courts, other than small-claims courts, solve Disputes. 3. Serve as a private attorney general or in a representative capacity. 4. Be in a class action.
Are you waiving class action rights?	Yes.	You agree that courts and arbiters won't allow class actions in resolving disputes between you and us. In all circumstances, you waive your class action rights. You waive your right to be in a class action, as a representative and a member. Only individual arbitration, or small-claims courts, will solve Disputes. You waive your right to have representative claims. Unless reversed on appeal, if a court invalidates the class-action waiver, then the parties agree not to arbitrate disputes. If so, you agree that only a judge, and not a jury, will resolve the dispute.
What law applies?	The Federal Arbitration Act ("FAA").	This transaction involves interstate commerce. Thus, the FAA governs. If a court finds the FAA doesn't apply, and the finding can't be appealed, then your state's law governs. The TPA must apply substantive law consistent with the FAA. The TPA must follow statutes of limitation and privilege claims.
Can the parties try to solve Disputes first?	Yes.	We can try to solve Disputes if you call us at (877)357-5474 . If this doesn't solve the Dispute, mail us written notice, within 100 days of the Dispute date. In your notice, tell us the details and how you want to solve it. We will try to solve the Dispute. If we make a written offer ("Settlement Offer"), you can reject it and arbitrate. If we don't solve the Dispute, either party may start arbitration. To start arbitration, contact a TPA or arbitration group listed below. No party will disclose settlement proposals to the TPA during arbitration.

How should you contact us?	By mail.	Send mail to: Uown, 10500 University Center Dr. Suite 150. Tampa, FL 33612. You can call us or use certified mail to confirm receipt.
Can small-claims court solve some Disputes?	Yes.	Each party has the right to arbitrate, or to go to small-claims court if the small-claims court has the power to hear the Dispute. Arbitration will solve all Disputes that the small-claims court does not have the power to hear. If there is an appeal from small-claims court, or if a Dispute changes so that the small-claims court loses the power to hear it, then the Dispute will only be heard by a TPA.
Do other options exist?	Yes.	Both parties may use lawful self-help remedies. This includes set-off or repossession or reclaiming of rented items. Both parties may seek remedies which don't claim money damages. This includes pre-judgment seizure, injunctions, or equitable relief.
Will this Clause continue to govern?	Yes, unless otherwise agreed.	The Clause stays effective, unless the parties sign an agreement stating it doesn't. The Clause governs if you rescind, cancel, or terminate the transaction. It governs if you default, renew, prepay, exercise an early payment option, renegotiate, or pay. It governs if your contract is discharged through bankruptcy. The Clause remains effective, despite a transaction's termination, amendment, expiration, or performance.
Process.
How does arbitration start?	Mailing a notice.	Either party may mail the other a request to arbitrate, even if a lawsuit has been filed. The notice should describe the Dispute and relief sought. The receiving party must mail a response within 20 days. If you mail the demand, you may choose the arbitration group. Or, your demand may state that you want the parties to choose a local TPA. If related third parties or we mail the demand, you must respond in 20 days. Your response must choose an arbitration group or propose a local TPA. If it doesn't, we may choose the group.
Who arbitrates?	AAA, JAMS, or an agreed TPA.	You may select the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") (1-800-778-7879) http://www.adr.org or JAMS (1-800-352-5267) http://www.jamsadr.com . The parties may also agree in writing to a local attorney, retired judge, or TPA in good standing with an arbitration group. The TPA must arbitrate under AAA or JAMS consumer rules. You may get a copy of these rules from such group. Any rules that conflict with any of our agreements with you don't apply. If these options aren't available, and the parties can't agree on another, a court may choose the group. The parties will then obtain a TPA under such group's rules. Such TPA must enforce your agreements with us, as they are written.
Will the hearing be held nearby?	Yes.	The TPA will order the hearing within 30 miles of your home or where the transaction occurred.
What about appeals?	Appeals are limited.	The TPA's decision will be final. A party may file the TPA's award with the proper court. Unless prohibited by applicable law, arbitration will solve appeals of a small-claims court judgment. A party may appeal under the FAA. If the amount in controversy exceeds $10,000.00, a party may appeal the TPA's finding. Such appeal will be to a three-TPA panel from the same arbitration group. The appeal will be "de novo", and solved by majority vote. The Appealing party will bear appeal costs, despite the outcome.
Arbitration Fees and Awards.
Will we advance Arbitration Fees?	Yes, but you may pay costs.	We advance your "Arbitration Fees" if you ask us to. This includes filing, administrative, hearing, and TPA's fees. You pay your attorney fees and other expenses.
Are damages and attorney fees possible?	Yes, if allowed.	The TPA may award the same damages as a court. TPAs may award reasonable attorney fees, and expenses, if allowed by law.
Will you pay Arbitration Fees if you win?	No.	If the TPA awards you funds, you don't reimburse us the Arbitration Fees.
Will you ever pay Arbitration Fees?	In some cases.	If the TPA doesn't award you funds, then you may need to repay the Arbitration Fees. If you pay Arbitration Fees, the amount won't exceed state court costs.
What happens if you win?	You could get more than the TPA awarded.	If a TPA's award to you exceeds our last Settlement Offer, we will pay 3 amounts. We will pay the greater of the award amount or $2,500.00 (the "bonus payment"). We will pay your reasonable attorney fees actually incurred, plus 10% of such amount (the "attorney premium"). If the TPA orders, we will pay reasonable expert witness costs and other costs you incurred ("cost premium"). If we never made a Settlement Offer, we will pay the bonus payment, attorney premium, and any cost premium. The TPA may order the process for payment. If a law allows you more, this Clause won't prevent such award. We won't seek attorney fees and expenses.

Can an award be explained?	Yes.	A party may request details from the TPA, within 14 days of the ruling. Upon such request, the TPA will explain the ruling in writing.
Other Options.
If you don't want to arbitrate, can you still get a transaction?	Yes. You can get our services and decide not to arbitrate.	Consider these choices: 1. Informal Dispute Resolution. Contact us and attempt to settle any Disputes. 2. Small-Claims Court. Seek to solve Disputes in small-claims court, within state law limits. 3. Opt-Out of Arbitration. Sign and then timely opt-out.
Can you opt-out of the Clause?	Yes. Within 60 days.	Write us within 60 calendar days of signing your agreement to opt-out of the Clause for that agreement. List your name, address, account number and date. List that you "opt out." If you opt out, it will only apply to the Property and this Agreement.

17. Miscellaneous Provisions. You understand that time is of the essence in this Agreement. You understand that no changes may be made to this Agreement except by us in writing. You agree that we have not made any promises or representations about this Agreement or the Property other than those contained in this Agreement. You agree that you have received the Property in satisfactory condition. You acknowledge that you have received a signed copy of this Agreement.

18. Electronic Signatures. You have agreed to sign this Agreement using an electronic signature. You understand and agree that you intend: (a) your electronic signature to be an electronic signature under federal and state law; (b) to conduct business with us by electronic records and electronic signatures; and (c) this Agreement will not be governed by Article 3 of the Uniform Commercial Code.
